Make a Big Impact on a Small Country

Building Bridges to the Dominican Republic

Join the Center for Global Volunteer Service, in partnership with the San Diego Padres, on a week-long volunteer trip in the beautiful Dominican Republic!

- Teach at local elementary and middle schools
- Assist San Diego Padres Latin League baseball players with learning the culture and customs of the USA.
- Volunteer in the local beachside community.

“...paradise” in the Dominican Republic. The palm trees and blue waters were nice, but the real payoff is playing with the locals, both kids and adults, and cultural exchange that happens over simple games and laughs. I feel like I made a big difference in a little part of the world.”

- Brittan Trozzi, March 2010 participant

Join A Trip!

Program Details:

Cost: $600 land package – includes lodging, at the San Diego Padres Training Facility, all meals and transportation. *Flight not included.

For More Information and Trip Dates: Contact Emily Loui at the Center for Global Volunteer Service:

eloui@ucsd.edu | (858) 964-1011

Space is limited, reserve your spot today!