38th Annual
UC San Diego Alumni Celebration

CALL FOR NOMINATIONS

Mike Judge, ’85, Outstanding Alumnus (2015)
Dear Distinguished Members of the UC San Diego Community,

The 2016 UC San Diego Alumni Celebration will mark the 38th year the university has recognized the accomplishments of outstanding alumni and friends. Please take time to consider alumni who have brought honor and distinction to the university through their leadership, professional accomplishments or personal achievements, and nominate them for an award.

The Awards Selection Committee, made up of elected and former members of the Alumni Association’s governing board, will review the submitted materials for each candidate and select those persons whose achievements most closely fit the category for which they have been nominated. Awards will be presented at the Alumni Celebration on June 4, 2016.

Please complete the enclosed nomination form or submit your nomination online at alumni.ucsd.edu/awards by October 26, 2015. If you have questions, please contact Eliza Wiggins, at (858) 534-6406 or ecwiggins@ucsd.edu.

Thank you for celebrating the excellence of UC San Diego alumni.

Sincerely,

Jeff Belk, ‘83
Chair, Alumni Celebration Awards Selection Committee Distinguished Alumnus/A

is awarded to an alumna or alumnus of an undergraduate or graduate program of UC San Diego, who has rendered special or outstanding service, or, through personal achievement, has brought honor and distinction to the university.

Emerging Leader

is presented to an alumna or alumnus who has made a significant impact in their profession and/or community-at-large since graduation. The nominee must be 35 years of age or younger at the time the award is presented.
2015 HONOREES
DISTINGUISHED ALUMNI

Mike Judge, ’85 Physics
Mike Judge is an award-winning creator and producer of today’s most popular movies and television series including King of the Hill, Beavis and Butt-head, Office Space, Idiocracy and Extract. The physicist turned animator, filmmaker and actor is now working on his latest television series, Silicon Valley, now filming its second season for HBO.

Cindy Marten, M.A. ’95, Education Studies
Cindy Marten has shown a tremendous commitment to making a real impact in the San Diego educational community. She has served as an educator for 25 years—as a teacher, an instructional leader and a school principal. In July 2013, Cindy was appointed superintendent of the San Diego Unified School District, the second largest school district in the state of California.

Ken Kroner is a global finance innovator, who serves as chief investment officer of Scientific Active Equity and global head of Multi-Asset Strategies at BlackRock, the world’s largest asset manager. In 2011, he and his wife Jennifer created the Kroner Family Endowed Fellowship with a gift to the Division of Social Sciences, allowing stellar students the opportunity to pursue research interests at UC San Diego. Ken serves on the UC San Diego Foundation Board of Trustees and the Economics Leadership Council and has been a long-time supporter of many campus programs and initiatives.
Philip Wang, '06, Wesley Chan, '06, and Ted Fu, '06, Visual Arts
Together, Philip Wang, Wesley Chan and Ted Fu run Wong Fu Productions, a growing independent production company. Their well-known YouTube channel has more than 1 million subscribers and has garnered over 200 million views of short films, music videos and video blogs for its large and loyal fan base. Their creative work has been recognized for its striking quality and emotional depth, earning honors and praise from organizations like CNN, NPR, the Cannes Film Festival, and the Sundance Film Festival.

Pierre Sleiman, M.B.A. ’13, Rady School of Management
Pierre Sleiman is the founder and CEO of Go Green Agriculture, an innovative company that grows produce inside climate-controlled greenhouses using hydroponics. His company has more than 400 customers including Whole Foods, Sprouts, Jimbo’s Naturally and Hyatt Hotels. In July 2014, Pierre was honored as an Agriculture Champion of Change at the White House alongside other notable leaders who are doing extraordinary things to build the next generation of farming and ranching.
